Privacy policy

We take Privacy Seriously

The protection of your privacy when processing personal data is important to us. When you visit our website, our web servers store the IP address of your internet service provider, the website from which you visit us, the websites you visit, the date and duration of the visit. This information is required to ensure the necessary technical transmission between websites and secure server operation. There is no further analysis and processing of this data.

You can visit the internet sites of Huber Technology Inc. without having to disclose your personal data. The only data we have access to via the log files on our server are you IP-Adresse the name of your internet provider, which sites you have visited when and how long. These data are used for fully anonymous statistical evaluation of efficiency review and as a basis for our efforts to continuously extend and improve our internet service.

Personal Data

Personal data is data about you. This includes your name, address and email address. You do not have to divulge any personal information in order to visit our website. In some cases we may need your name and address so that we can provide you with the correct information about our products and services, and/or respond to your request or enquiry. We will inform you in such cases and, in addition, we will only store the data that you have sent to us automatically or voluntarily.

We only collect the data necessary to provide our service. We may ask you for more information, which is voluntary in nature. Whenever we process personal information, we do so to provide you with our service.

If you send us data via an enquiry form, this data will be stored as part of the backup on our servers. Your data will only be used by us to process your request. Your data will be treated confidentially and will be strictly kept within the HUBER group ; we do not pass any data on to third parties.

Automatically stored Non-Personal Data

When you visit our website, we store certain information for administrative and technical reasons. These are: type and version of the browser used, date and time of access, as well as the IP address.

This data is anonymised and used only for statistical purposes or to improve our online services. This anonymised data is stored separately from any personal data on secure systems and cannot be assigned to individual persons. This means that your personal information remains protected at all times.

Cookies

When you visit our website, we may store information on your computer in the form of cookies. Cookies are small files that are transferred from an Internet server to your browser and stored on its hard disk. Only the Internet Protocol address is stored here - no personal data. This information, which is stored in the cookies, allows you to automatically recognize it the next time you visit our website, which will facilitate your use.

You can also visit our website without accepting cookies. If you do not want your computer to be recognised the next time you visit, you may also decline to use cookies by changing the settings in your browser to "decline cookies". The respective procedure can be found in the operating instructions of your respective browser. If you refuse the use of cookies, however, it may lead to restrictions in the use of some areas of our websites.

Use of YouTube

We use YouTube to embed videos. Like most websites, YouTube uses cookies to collect information about visitors to its website and continues to connect to the Google DoubleClick network. Our videos are therefore embedded in enhanced privacy mode, which does not pass on information about the visitor to YouTube when viewing our web pages. Only when you start a video could this trigger further data processing. We have no influence on that. For more information about privacy at YouTube, please see their privacy policy at: http://www.youtube.com/t/privacy_at_youtube

Safety

We have taken technical and administrative security measures to protect your personal data against loss, destruction, manipulation and unauthorised access. All our employees as well as service providers working for us are obliged to comply with the relevant data

Whenever we collect and process personal information, it will be encrypted before being transferred. This means that your data can not be misused by third parties. Our security is subject to on-going review and improvement and our privacy statements are updated to reflect the latest requirements and technologies used. Please make sure you have the latest version.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to change our Privacy Policy if necessary. An up-to-date copy of this Policy will always be held on our website.
